REPORT OF POLICE INVESTIGATIONS.

The following is the statement of Wong Pao Ding (王寶定) alias Vung Se Kung (王錫根) 30, native of Wusih, N.F.A. native of _____ taken by me C.D.S.60 at Louisa Stn. on the 24-7-32 and translated interpreted by clerk Sih Yung Pai

Previously I was employed by Cotton Mill. My father died when I was 4 years old. Owing to financial difficulties, my mother brought me to Shanghai, entering the E-We Cotton Mill as an apprentice at my 7 years of age, where she was engaged too. We worked at the Cotton Mill, above, for about 10 years, I was then 17 years old, and my mother died. I became, at that time, the only one in my family. I then entered the New E-We Cotton Mill, Yangtszepoo, as a workman for the period of 6 or 7 years.

At 24 years of age, I left Shanghai for Wusih and entered the Sung Sing 3rd Cotton Mill (申新第三紗廠), Wusih, offering myself as a repairer for machines.

On the approach to Shanghai of the Nationalist Army, one named Zang Woo Shang (常和商), workman of the above Mill, began to be a member of the Communists' Party, during the trouble between China and Great Britain on 30th May. He immediately had the 'Club for Workmen' organized at Weissan-pang (惠山浜), Wusih. He was the Chairman of the Club and I was a clerk.

On arrival at Shanghai of the Nationalist Army, the General Association of Workers was organized there. I was then ordered to be an inspector for that Association, where I got 40 cents a day as my salary. I left that post 8 or 6 days after, as I was afraid that the job was not proper, while Zang Woo Shang was working there as Secretary. I was then engaged by Hu Sung Cotton Mill (厚生紗廠) for about two years and my resignation was made due to the fact of a quarrel arising between our workers, at 28 years of age.

REPORT OF POLICE INVESTIGATIONS.

The following is the statement of _____ native of _____ taken by me _____ at _____ on the _____ and interpreted by _____

As I was unemployed, I resided at Zang Woo Shang's home, Yangtsepoo Jan. He (Zang) then asked me to enter the Communists' Party so as to keep my daily expenses, and I agreed to his suggestion. I started to carry on my work organizing a Branch Association of Workers at Yangtsepoo. I went to entrances of the Cotton Mills every day, where workers were solicited to be members of the Branch Association, above. We held meetings constantly in uncertain places: on the ground or in the straw huts. Money was provided by Zang Woo Shang for the purpose of doing so. Two months later I resigned the job for the lack of money.

I then left Shanghai for Tientsin where I got a position at Yue Yuen Cotton Mill (裕源纺织) in the capacity of a repairer for machine on my friend named Wee Tsung King's (吴振明) recommendation. I worked there for over one year and left because of sickness. I returned to my native place, Wusih, for cure for about 5 or 6 months.

On 12th July, I left Wusih for Shanghai, intending to go to Tientsin again. At 4.p.m. on the day of my arrival at Shanghai, I met one named Woo Foh Shing (吴福兴) alias Hu Tung Sheng (吴同声) on the bus, who, I knew, was a communist. I asked him if he was engaged in any job and he replied no. As we could not talk freely on the bus, I was then asked to go to Room No.20 of Tsing See Lodging House (新泰旅社), Hupeh Road, on Sunday night. On Sunday, I proceeded to lodging house, above, and met him there. I was arrested when we were talking.

This is my true statement.

When I was 11 years of age, I entered the Lee Tsi Primary School in Hanking. My father died when I was 13 years. Owing to my financial difficulties, I left the school and obtained a job as an apprentice in a certain factory at Nantao. After a lapse of half a year, I was employed in the Dong Chong Cotton Factory.

At 18 years of age, I worked as a coolie in the Koong Yih Cotton factory, Zam Ka Deo. After working there for 5 years, I was an enginner and a year later, I again obtained a job as an enginner in the Sun Sing Cotton Mill.

When I was 26 years old, a Great disturbance was made between China and British on the 30th of May, 14th year of the Republic of China. During the trouble, a strike of labourers had been started among all the factories. At that time, a man named Lee Lih San formed a General Labourers Union in which I was a clerk. About 3 or 4 months after the trouble was settled and all labourers and workers resumed their work, I began to work in the Sun Sing Cotton Mill. I was arrested by Secung Wu Garrison H'quarters and sentenced to 6 months for attending a meeting, which was held in the 'Koong Open Tien Yook Zang' on the day of Sept. 15th year of Chinese Republic. I was released in the beginning of the 16th year of the Republic of China. I resigned my job when I was 31 years old. I was employed as a broker after having sold my shop. In the middle of June this year, I was introduced by Zing Chuen Hui to a detective named Tsou Kya Yih attached to B. of Public Safety. To whom I acted as an informer, to enquire into communistic matters. At 2 p.m. on 12-7-32, I met Lee Sih Kung on a No. 10 Bus. I knew that he is a communist. I reported same to the detective that the man Lee is wanted. Before reporting to the detective I told the man Lee to engage a room No. 20 in the Sing See Sun lodging house. At 5 p.m. on 17-7-32, Lee Sih Kung was arrested when he jumped out of the window, causing his leg broken.

Proceedings. Mr. Lea appeared for the Police.

Mr. Lea:- The two accused were arrested at the request of the P.S.B. and now only an application is made for their detention. On the 17/7/32 the Special Branch received information from the P.S.B. that some communists were at 267 Hupoh Rd. The P.S.B. had no warrant so the Special Branch telephoned to the Louisa Station to raid the premises. In room No.20 of 267 Hupoh Rd the Police arrested the 1st accused who gave the name as Wong Pau Ding, but he was identified by the 2nd accused as Hyui Se Kung. The 1st accused jumped through the window on to the footpath and tried to escape but was injured on the leg and removed to Hospital. The representative of the P.S.B. states that the 1st accused is the most important offender and is wanted by the Nanking Government on a circular warrant. The P.S.B. want the accused handed over to them but the Police consider that before they the evidence is produced, the accused should be detained in custody.

G.D.C. 178:- On the 17/7/32 the representative of the P.S.B. informed the special branch that communists were at Room No.20 of the Sing Soo Lodging-house on Hupoh Rd. we went to the lodging-house and found the two men in the room. The 1st accused, as soon as he saw us, jumped through the window and injured his legs. We took both to the Station and sent the 1st accused later to the hospital.

2nd Accused:- I know the 1st accused. I knew him on the 14th year of the Chinese Republic. I met him in the New Sung Cotton Mill. On the 12/7/32 I met him on a Bus and he told me that he resided at Room No.20 of the Sing Soo Lodging-house. On the 17/7/32 I went to

I was a member of the Labour Union Association, but I did not join the Communist Party. No strike took place in the Cotton Mill. I do not know if the 1st accused is a communist or not. I do not know the reason for his attempted escape. He told me that he arrived in Shanghai a few days ago. I hired the room in the lodging-house. My friend told me that the 1st accused was wanted by the P.S.B. as he was a communist. On the 17/7/32 I was talking to him about business in general. I gave my name in the lodging-house as Woo Li Sung. I want to hire the room with one named "Zing" who is a detective, second in the P.S.B.

Representative of P.S.B. Woo Soo Zung:- On the 17/7/32 a Special 2 Detective named Wong Yoong Hui of the Central Government came to the P.S.B. and informed them that one named Hyui Se Kung who was an important member of communist had just arrived in Shanghai and was at the Sing See Lodging-house on Hupah Rd. The Special Detective name Wong received information that the 1st accused would rent a room No. 20 at the Sing See Lodging-house. The 1st accused is wanted by the Nanking Government so I ask that both be handed over to us.
